- Appropriate packaging and materials to ensure freshness.
- Logistics and transportation.
- Documentation and customs procedures, such as phytosanitary certificates, commercial invoices and documents of origin.

SUGAR MANGO

Also known as baby mango, it is an ideal fruit to freshen up; small in size, sweet and juicy. Additionally, it contains vitamins A, B, C, E and K, which are great for strengthening the immune system, as well as the proper functioning of the body.

HASS AVOCADO

Known as the fruit for the heart that is high in vitamins B and E. Likewise, it has a great nutty and hazelnut taste; with a smooth-creamy texture and small or medium sized seed.

GRANADILLA

The sweet granadilla belongs to the family of passion flowers, also called passion fruits. It has a great smell and a sweet, smooth and fragrant taste; in addition to a high water content. When it comes its nutritional value, it stands out for its high levels of carbohydrates, vitamins A and C, and minerals such as potassium, magnesium and phosphorus.

GULUPA

The purple passion fruit is characterised by a lower acidity compared to other fruits belonging to the same family. Its unique and refreshing taste is complemented by a high fiber content, vitamin B, antioxidants, calories, proteins, carbohydrates, fats, calcium, phosphorus, iron, ascorbic acid (vitamin C) and carotenoids (vitamin A).

TAHITI LIME

Tahiti lime is well known for its slightly sweet taste, as well as being a good source of vitamin C. It is also ideal for adding to drinks, salads, marinades and a great variety of dishes.

PASSION FRUIT

This tropical fruit with a sweet and sour taste contains high levels of carbohydrates and water, making it a great food when it comes to recover energy after having made a big effort. And, indeed, passion fruit is a good source of provitamin A, vitamin C and minerals such as potassium, phosphorus and magnesium.

GOLDEN BERRY

The golden berry is a fruit that is characterised by the high nutritional value brought by its main components. It is an important source of carotenes, antioxidants and unsaturated fatty acids; besides being full of vitamins A, C, K and E.
